

Warren County Memorial Library

Donor Agreement

The books or commercially produced items (limited to ten titles) listed below are hereby donated free and clear, and without restrictions, to the Public Library of Warren County, and said items can and may be books, DVD, VHS and audio books.

The donor declares that he/she does have the authority to and does hereby transfer good and marketable title and physical ownership of the items noted below to the Public Library Board of Warren County. Transfer of deed or title and physical ownership does not indicate a transfer of copyright ownership. The Public Library Board promises to preserve and protect donations according to established standards accorded to all Warren County Public Library collections. Using established procedures, library staff may use their discretion to dispose of materials deemed inappropriate for the library's collections. This record will be retained for one year.
